

Chuck Fuqua Biography

Chuck Fuqua joined the American Forest & Paper Association (AF&PA) in 2010 as Executive Director, Strategic Communications. He is responsible for all aspects of running the communications efforts that support the association's public policy advocacy agenda, reinforcing the AF&PA brand and continuing the effectiveness of AF&PA as the voice of the paper and wood products industry.

Prior to coming to AF&PA, Fuqua served as Vice President of Communications at the American Frozen Food Institute for two years. Before entering the association world, he served nearly six years in the Department of Commerce's Office of Public Affairs, primarily as the Deputy Director of Public Affairs.

Fuqua has served on staff of four Republican National Conventions, primarily responsible for media operations for the 15,000 members of the media who cover the event. He is a graduate of West Georgia College with a degree in Mass Communications and resides in Alexandria, Virginia with his wife and two children.
